ICTC HOSA Students Win at National Competitions

Two students in the Health Occupations Certification program on the Muskogee Campus, won competitions during the 2011 National Health Occupation Students of America (HOSA) Leadership Conference and Skills Competitions held recently in Long Beach, California.

Winning First Place and the Gold Medal in the National Pathophysiology Competition, was Kelvin Gomez, from Muskogee High School. Felicia Neal, Hilldale, placed in the Top-Ten in Interview Skills. Advisor and Instructor for the students is Wren Stratton.

Also attending the national HOSA conference, and representing Oklahoma, was Amanda Plunkett, the Oklahoma State HOSA Chaplin and Kaylan Dickey, Oklahoma State HOSA Secretary. They were accompanied by their Instructor and Advisor, Dana Chandler.
