

ICTC Bright Spot on the Oklahoma horizon

Indian Capital Technology Center

Muskogee Sallisaw Stilwell Tahlequah

Area Students to Represent State in National FCCLA Competitions

Carissa Foster (left) and Jennifer Saratt (right), Culinary Arts students at Indian Capital Technology Center, Muskogee, won 1st Place in the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) Star Event in Hospitality, during the 2008 State FCCLA Leadership Conference.

The team recently won 1st Place in the ProStart Quick Service competitions, and 2nd Place in the ProStart Case Management competitions, sponsored by the Oklahoma Restaurant Association.

Both students attend Coweta High School. Foster is a junior and Saratt is a senior. They will represent Oklahoma at the National FCCLA Leadership Conference that will be held in Orlando, Florida, in July.

Foster and Saratt have each received $1,750 in scholarships from Johnson & Wales University for Culinary Arts. They have also won scholarships from Oklahoma State University, Okmulgee, and Platt College.

Instructor and Advisor for the ICTC Culinary Arts program is Georgiann Belton.