Area Women Win National SkillsUSA Statesman Award in Washinton, D. C.

Tylee Sellman of Coweta, and Vanessa McClure, SkillsUSA Advisor at Indian Capital Technology Center, Muskogee, attended the SkillsUSA Washington Leadership Training Institute (WLTI) in September in Washington, D. C. Sellman, Oklahoma President of SkillsUSA, was accepted to attend the conference which focused on developing advanced leadership, citizenship and employability skills. Like students, advisors ad opportunities to learn how to be change agents for career and technical education. Sellman and McClure both competed and won the National Statesman Award. Sellman is a Cosmetology student at ICTC.
